

We gather together wherever we live and give thanks to the Spirit above, for earth and its harvest, for freedom and peace and especially for people we love.